The 3rd Citi Press Club session

The 3rd Citi Press Club session took place on January 24, 2008.

Dmitry Vinogradov, Head of Citi Russia Equity research, presented 2008 Citi Russia equity strategy "Made in Russia".

Around 20 journalists from leading international and local press attended the meeting.

According to Citi analysts, despite of current volatility and uncertainty in global markets, the Russian economy will be able to demonstrate a sustainable growth this year.

Telecoms, banks, commercial real estate and pharmaceutical sectors have the highest upside potential.

The presentation caused a lot of interest, and upon completion of 40-minute speech Dmitry had been answering journalists' questions for more than an hour.

Citi Press Club is aimed at providing new exclusive information to the journalists specializing in financial and banking industry as well as ideas and topics for articles which are interesting for the press readers and increase their financial literacy. The further plans of Citi Press Club include new events for the press raising relevant topics on financial market.
