

December 9, 2003

Citigroup Named World's Best Internet Bank and World's Best Corporate/Institutional Internet Bank by Global Finance

32 awards for Citigroup and subsidiaries at the country, regional and global levels for consumer and corporate/institutional categories.

New York — Citigroup is the world's best Internet bank and the world's best corporate/institutional Internet bank for the second consecutive year according to Global Finance magazine in their December issue. In their fourth annual world's best Internet bank awards, Global Finance also named Citigroup as the best corporate/institutional Internet bank in Latin America, Middle East/Africa and Central and Eastern Europe. Banamex won 11 awards at the country, regional and subcategory levels and Citigroup Handlowy won two awards as best online cash management bank in Poland and Central and Eastern Europe. Citigroup and Banamex won best consumer Internet bank awards in Guam, Indonesia, Mexico, Singapore and Thailand; best consumer online bill presentment and payment service in Malaysia; and best corporate/institutional Internet bank awards in Argentina, Australia, Bolivia, China, Colombia, Costa Rica, Guatemala, Kenya, Korea, Mexico, Netherlands and Poland.

In total, Citibank won 32 awards at the country, regional and global level based on the breadth of product offerings; success in acquiring and retaining new clients and migrating existing clients to the Web; and use of the Internet to improve business processes, cut costs and deliver other functionality. A judging panel from Deloitte and Touche, IBM Global Services, KPMG Consulting, Logica, MeridianGS and Tata Infotech chose finalists and the editors of Global Finance made the final decisions.