Clients recognise Citi Best Global Emerging Market Bank

Clients recognise Citi Best Global Emerging Market Bank, according to a survey recently published by the Euromoney magazine.

Citi won 16 awards for excellence as a result of the survey carried out by Euromoney magazine among its readers and professional financial community. Citi's businesses were honored in every single region where the bank operates and in six individual countries.

Citi took the distinction of Best Global Emerging Market Bank, as well as reclaimed the mantle of Best Bank in Asia, an award that the bank had previously won for 10 years running and regained after one year. Citi was also named Best Global Transaction Banking House, a testament to the unmatched connectivity offered by its GTS franchise.

Vikram Pandit, CEO Citigroup said: "I am immensely proud of the way we have turned around this company. We have been consistently profitable, we are strengthening our position in the markets that matter most for the future, and we are making key investments in our businesses, technology and people. I am extremely proud of our company's performance in the latest round of Awards for Excellence bestowed by Euromoney magazine."
