

December 19, 2011
Moscow

Attention to Citibank customers!

Dear Customers!

On the threshold of New Year's holidays Citibank addresses to you with the request in advance to inform us on planned large expenses or forthcoming trips abroad. You can do it by calling the Citiphone at the phone number on the back side of your card. This information will help bank to react more operatively to non-standard operations under your account.