ZAO Citibank held an award ceremony to announce top winners of the 2006 FIFA World Cup Promo Campaign.

504 customers became the winners of the promotion run over eight weeks - between 27 March and 21 May 2006. Any Citibank customer who made purchases* with a Citibank credit card could qualify for a prize-winning transaction! 500 winners won official World Cup balls, and four lucky winners will enjoy the exciting atmosphere of the football festival – they will attend World Cup opening, semifinal or final matches in Germany. They will also have a unique privilege of meeting Pele the legendary football player of all times.

The four winners attending the World Cup tournament:

- Zhikharev Dmitriy Fedorovich (Moscow)
- Lysynchouk Alexandr Vladimirovich (Moscow)
- Yudintsev Dmitriy Leonidovich (Moscow)
- Panteleev Anton Viktorovich (Moscow)

The award ceremony took place at Citibank's brand new Novoslobodskaya Branch. Congratulating the winners, George Denisenko, Credit Cards Portfolio Management Head in Russia, said: "Citibank conducts various exciting promo campaigns for its Credit Card holders on a regular basis. Many Citibank customers are able to win unforgettable prizes, such as these trips to the 2006 World Cup and an opportunity to meet the legendary Pele! Citibank constantly works on improving its products and services and expands the list of offered retail discount programmes and promotional campaigns for our customers."

Anton Panteleev, one of the winners, said: "I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Citibank, the organizer of the Win a Trip to 2006 FIFA World Cup contest. It's no secret that millions of football fans all around the world dream about going to the World Cup, the most spectacular and exciting event of the year. To be able to attend a World Cup match and also to meet the legendary Pele is a precious gift to be remembered forever. Citibank, thank you very much!"
