These Credit Card Terms and Conditions for Consumers are approved by Order No. 10/31-od of October 10, 2019, and are in effect as of November 14, 2019.

1. Introduction

1.1. These credit card terms and conditions (the "Terms and Conditions") set out the terms and conditions whereby AO Citibank ("Citibank") will offer its customers credit cards with related services and products as described in greater detail below. The Terms and Conditions, the schedule of fees, commissions and charges (the "Tariffs"), and the credit card application (the "Application") duly completed and signed by the person named in the Application (the "Customer") and Citibank, shall together constitute the Credit Agreement between the Customer and Citibank (the "Agreement"). The Agreement shall be deemed entered into as of the date Citibank issues its Credit Card to the Customer. Where the Customer is issued with a second primary Credit Card and/or a supplementary Credit Card and is in agreement with the terms on which such credit card(s) is/are issued, such Agreement shall be deemed supplemented to incorporate the terms pertaining to such credit card(s). Where this is the case, the Agreement supplement to the Agreement shall be deemed entered into (a) at the time Citibank accepts the Customer’s offer concerning the issue of the second primary Credit Card and/or the supplementary Credit Card if the offer concerning the issue of the second primary Credit Card and/or the supplementary Credit Card originates from Citibank.

1.2. The Terms and Conditions, together with the Tariffs and Citibank’s other standard forms and schedules, set forth the general terms on which a credit is extended to, and is used and repaid by, the Customer. Such general terms represent the general terms of credit (the "General Terms of Credit Agreement") and together with the individual terms of credit agreement constitute a credit agreement (the "Credit Agreement"). The Terms and Conditions also govern the opening and maintenance by Citibank of an account to be opened in the name of the Customer for the purpose of credit card transactions (the "Account"), and the provision of all related services and products offered by Citibank to the Customer. The Credit Agreement shall be deemed entered into at the time the Customer accepts the individual terms of credit agreement as described in paragraph 2.1. below. Certain types of related services and products may be offered by Citibank to the Customer subject to separate agreement(s) or service rules and procedures as may be established by Citibank from time to time. In the event of a conflict between the provisions of the Terms and Conditions and any specific agreements, service rules or procedures, the provisions of such specific agreements, service rules or procedures shall prevail.

1.3. The extending of any credit to the Customer shall be subject to the Credit Agreement. Citibank may refuse to enter into the Credit Agreement with the Customer without giving any reason for such refusal unless obligated by law. Citibank may provide both unsecured and secured credit in a manner as determined in its discretion.

1.4. The credit card agreement and the Credit Agreement contain elements of different contracts, thus being hybrid contracts, and, save for the individual terms of credit agreement entered into by the Customer, represent the contracts of adhesion.

2. Account and Credit Limit

2.1. To obtain credit, the Customer shall, upon familiarizing him/herself with the General Terms of Credit Agreement, provide to Citibank his/her Application and such documents as required by Citibank in order to consider the extension of credit to the Customer. Upon consideration of the Application and other documents, Citibank will determine if the Customer meets the credit acceptance criteria as established by Citibank from time to time. If Citibank, in its discretion, determines that the Customer meets such criteria, Citibank will send the Customer the individual terms of credit agreement, which, inter alia, will include the Account number. After that the Customer will have until the end of the last banking day of the twelfth calendar month following the receipt of the individual terms of credit agreement to accept such terms of credit agreement. The Customer may indicate his/her acceptance by sending Citibank a signed copy of the individual terms of credit agreement (including via Citibank Online) or by doing other acts acknowledging his/her acceptance of the individual terms of credit agreement. For the purpose of entering into the Credit Agreement, such act is deemed to be entered into as of the date of receipt of the Credit Card. The Credit Agreement is deemed entered into as of the date of the Customer’s acceptance.

Upon entering into the Credit Agreement, Citibank will open the Account for the Customer. The credit limit which Citibank may make available to the Customer (i.e. a limit up to which the Customer may borrow), the interest rate and other material terms and conditions of credit will be set out in the individual terms of credit agreement. Citibank shall not change the individual terms of credit agreement until the end of the last banking day of the twelfth calendar month from the date that they were sent to the Customer, unless such change is agreed by the Customer. Citibank may, in its discretion, determine the time of the availability of the Customer’s offer and accepted by the Customer in the manner therein specified, the credit limit will be reduced to the original amount without the Customer’s additional acceptance. The Customer is entitled to notify Citibank of his/her refusal to accept Citibank’s credit limit increase or decrease offer within the time specified in the offer.

If Citibank receives the Customer’s notification of refusal to accept Citibank’s credit limit increase or decrease offer, the terms of credit will continue to apply unchanged, and the Customer shall be obligated to repay the amount due under paragraph 2.5. below.

The manner and method of sending the Customer an offer concerning an increase or decrease in the credit limit will be determined by Citibank and may include, inter alia, SMS messages to the Mobile Phone Number, Credit Card Statements, and such other methods as may be determined by Citibank.

If the Customer’s creditworthiness is impaired (which may be evidenced by overdue payments under the Credit Agreement or any other agreement whereby Citibank loans money to the Customer, or by the information that the Customer fails to perform the terms and conditions whereby AO Citibank ("Citibank") receives payments from credit bureaus or other sources), Citibank may decrease the credit limit unilaterally and shall notify the Customer accordingly.

2.2. The Customer may use the credit within the available limit (i.e. the difference between the credit limit and the total Outstanding Balance) by charging transactions to his/her Account, including the use of ATMs, payments for goods and services, cash advances, and transfers to his/her other accounts and third party accounts. The Customer understands that certain Credit Card transactions (e.g. transactions in different currencies or transactions involving the use of ATMs or various payment systems, and certain other transactions) may further decrease the credit limit due to applicable foreign currency swap commissions and charges as may be established by Citibank or other banks, financial institutions and/or payment systems through which such transactions are processed. If a payment system’s debit request is received by Citibank on a weekend or a public holiday, the transaction amount will be debited from the Account using Citibank’s internal exchange rate applicable on the last business day before that weekend or public holiday.

The Customer further understands that certain Credit Card transactions may result in a technical overdraft where the Customer’s spend exceeds the available limit. Where this is the case, the Customer may apply penalties and charge a technical overdraft fee/interest and other fees, commissions and charges (the "Fees"), which will increase the Outstanding Balance.

2.3. The Customer may indicate his/her acceptance of such offer in one of the ways as indicated within the said time, the terms of credit will continue to apply unchanged. The Customer may indicate his/her acceptance of such offer within sixty (60) days of receipt of such offer. If the Customer’s acceptance is not indicated within the said time, the terms of credit will continue to apply unchanged, and the Customer shall be obligated to repay the amount due under paragraph 2.5 below.

2.4. At the Customer’s request, Citibank will remove from the available limit by the amount of the Fees and interest: (i) accrued on the Outstanding Balance relating to Non-EPP Purchases as at the date of the previous Credit Card Statement and not repaid in full by the Payment Date indicated on such previous Credit Card Statement; and (b) accrued on other transactions which are not Non-EPP Purchases, including EPP Transactions, up to and including such Credit Card Statement date, and will increase the Outstanding Balance by such amount.

2.5. The Customer shall, on a monthly basis, repay to Citibank a Minimum Payment Amount by 10 p.m. Moscow time on the payment due date specified in the Credit Card Statement (the "Payment Date") each month. Failure by the Customer to repay the Minimum Payment Amount or any part thereof beyond Citibank’s control shall not relieve the Customer of his/her obligation to repay the Minimum Payment Amount when due. The Minimum Payment Amount is calculated as follows: (a) an amount equal to five (5%) percent of the total Outstanding Balance decreased by (i) the Outstanding Balance under all EPP Transactions, (ii) any outstanding penalties applied by Citibank due to the Customer’s failure to perform his/her obligations under the Credit Agreement, (iv) the amount of outstanding past obligations (including but not limited to those relating to the payment of principal, interest, fees and other charges) accrued after the end of the credit card statement period. Where the Customer’s spend exceeds the available limit. Where this is the case, the Customer may apply penalties and charge a technical overdraft fee/interest and other fees, commissions and charges (the "Fees"), which will increase the Outstanding Balance.

In accordance with the General Terms of Credit Agreement and/or the Tariffs, Citibank may apply penalties and charge a technical overdraft fee/interest and other fees, commissions and charges (the "Fees"), which will increase the Outstanding Balance.

2.6. The Customer will be obligated to repay the amount due under paragraph 2.5 below.

If the Customer’s creditworthiness is impaired (which may be evidenced by overdue payments under the Credit Agreement or any other agreement whereby Citibank loans money to the Customer, or by the information that the Customer fails to perform the terms and conditions whereby AO Citibank ("Citibank") receives payments from credit bureaus or other sources), Citibank may decrease the credit limit unilaterally and shall notify the Customer accordingly.
opportunity not to pay the Minimum Payment Amount, the Customer may waive such opportunity and make a full or partial payment towards the Minimum Payment Amount at any time before the Payment Date. Citibank shall have sole discretion in allowing the opportunity not to pay the Minimum Payment Amount.

2.7. Any payment, transfer or cash deposit to the Account will be used by Citibank to reduce the Customer’s obligations to Citibank in the following order of priority: (a) firstly – to reduce the overdue interest; (b) secondly – to reduce the overdue principal (the amount of Citibank’s funds used by the Customer); (c) thirdly – to pay penalties.

2.8. The balance of the Customer’s funds remaining after the application of the Customer’s funds towards the above obligations will be used by Citibank towards the following: (a) payment of interest accrued for the current period of use of Citibank’s funds; (b) repayment of the advance; (c) discharge of other payments/fees provided by the Credit Agreement and Russian law.

If the Customer uses several credit products made available by Citibank (credit cards, consumer loans, etc.), the above order of priority will apply to each such product in the chronological order of the Customer’s receipt of the credit. If there are two or more obligations that arise first, they will be discharged in the following order of priority: (a) repayment of the principal; (b) repayment of other amounts due from the Customer under the Credit Agreement and Russian law.

2.9. No interest will accrue on an amount paid, transferred or deposited by the Customer in excess of the total Outstanding Balance (the “Account Balance”).

2.10. The Customer may at any time repay the Outstanding Balance in full by way of payment, transfer or cash deposit to the Account (in an amount sufficient to pay the Customer’s overdue and current obligations under the Agreement and the Credit Agreement).

3. Credit Card

This Section describes the procedure for the issuance, use, cancellation, and replacement of a credit card issued by Citibank to the Customer (the “Credit Card”). In terms of technology and manufacture, the Credit Card can be of one of three types: a magnetic credit card, a magnetic credit card with an embedded magnetic stripe, a magnetic credit card with a chip. In any case, the Credit Card can be a VISA or a Mastercard, or a card of any other payment system. The Credit Cards can also be different in terms of Citibank’s alliances/co-branding partnerships with other companies. The Credit Card functionalities available at Citibank’s ATMs and described in the Terms and Conditions may not be fully available on other ATMs. The Customer understands that not all providers of goods and services (the “Merchants”) may accept the Credit Card or each type of the Credit Card as payment, and that the Merchants may impose limitations on the amounts of the Customer’s transactions and card holder identification procedures.

3.1. Upon entering into the Agreement, Citibank will issue the Credit Card of a particular type to the Customer. The Credit Card is linked and provides access to the Account. Citibank may at any time offer a second primary Credit Card to the Customer. The type of the second primary Credit Card may differ from that of the first one. If the Customer consents thereto, Citibank will issue the second primary Credit Card, set a limit for it (subject to any existing Credit Card balance), and open an Account as necessary for the maintenance of the second primary Credit Card. The credit limit on the first primary Credit Card and the credit limit on the second primary Credit Card will together constitute the credit limit under the Credit Agreement. Activation of the second primary Credit Card by the Customer indicates the Customer’s acceptance of the terms of the supplementary agreement to the Agreement (in relation to the issuance and maintenance of the second primary Credit Card).

In the event the second Credit Card is issued, Citibank may change the Credit Card Statement date. All obligations under the Credit Agreement and the Credit Card Agreement (except those to be agreed by the parties in the supplementary agreement) will apply to the second primary Credit Card.

3.2. The Credit Card will be issued to the Customer at a Citibank branch or, if the Customer so wishes, will be sent to the Customer’s current address provided by the Customer (or to the Customer’s previous address if no current address has been provided), or the Credit Card may have been agreed between Citibank and the Customer, in a manner that allows unequivocally establishing that the Credit Card is received by the Customer him/herself (or his/her representative duly authorized by a power of attorney), including by registered mail, courier service, or hand delivery by Citibank.

The Credit Card will be delivered to the Customer inactive. In order to start using the Credit Card, the Customer will be required to sign the back of the Credit Card and activate the Credit Card on Citibank’s website at www.citibank.ru, in Citibank Online or by calling a Citibank number indicated on the back of the Credit Card. During or after the activation process, the Customer will be required to set up his/her personal identification number (“PIN”) and telephone personal identification number (“TPIN”). The Customer will be required to enter PIN in order to use the Credit Card at ATMs, register in or recover access to Citibank Online, or purchase goods or services at the Merchants that accept chip credit cards if they require it. The Customer may be required to use TPIN in order to access Citibank’s services available through Citibank’s Online.

3.3. The Customer may request the issuance of one or more supplementary Credit Card(s) by submitting to Citibank an application to this effect in a form established by Citibank, along with such other documents on the supplementary Credit Card holders as may be requested by Citibank. Citibank shall have sole discretion in approving or denying the Customer’s application. Each such Supplementary Credit Card shall together constitute the credit limit under the Credit Agreement. All obligations arising out of the use of supplementary Credit Cards are deemed to be the obligations of the Customer. Supplementary Credit Cards will be delivered in a manner similar to that in which primary Credit Cards are delivered to the Customer and may be canceled by the Customer at any time (including if the Customer him/herself has been a party to the Agreement and the Credit Agreement).

3.4. The use of the Credit Card for ATM cash withdrawals and deposits, Credit Card information inquiries, and other ATMs transactions; (ii) payments through Citibank Online or Citibank; (iii) payments for goods and services purchased from the Merchants that accept the types of bank cards issued by Citibank to the Customer; and (iv) such other transactions and services as may be made available by Citibank from time to time.

3.5. When the Credit Card is used for the purpose of cash withdrawal or deposit at ATMs or payment for goods and services, the transaction amount (including applicable Fees) will be debited or credited, respectively, to the Account. If the currency of the transaction is different from the currency of the Account, the transaction amount (including applicable Fees) will be converted into the currency of the Account at the exchange rate as may be established by Citibank. All transactions through Russian financial institutions and/or payment systems through which such transactions are processed.

The Customer agrees that in some cases, where the Credit Card is used to pay for goods or services in a currency different from the currency of the Account, the transaction amount may be paid in the Account using Citibank’s internal exchange rate at a fixed exchange rate applicable on the date the transaction is posted/charged to the Account. If a payment system’s debit/credit request is received by Citibank in a foreign currency or a public holding account, the transaction amount will be debited from the Customer’s Account using the internal exchange rate applicable on the last business day before that weekend or public holiday.

3.6. If the Customer is refunded any money paid for goods or services using the Credit Card, the amounts of such refund will be credited to the Account. The Customer is not entitled to receive a refund in cash.

3.7. The Customer agrees that the use of his/her Credit Card and correct PIN at an ATM and/or when paying for goods or services with a chip credit card will be considered as proper and sufficient identification of the Customer and authorization to carry out transactions in respect of the Account in such cases. The Customer further agrees that the use of a Contactless magnetic credit card with a chip (touching it against a reader) when paying for goods or services at the point-of-sale terminals of the Merchants that accept contactless magnetic credit cards with a chip will be considered as proper and sufficient identification of the Customer and authorization to carry out transactions in respect of the Account in such cases.

3.8. An ATM and/or a Merchant shall issue (or may issue at the Customer’s request) a printout (a receipt or slip) of every ATM or purchase transaction carried out by the Customer with the use of the Credit Card. Citibank recommends that the Customer retain all such printouts for information. Unless otherwise provided by the Terms and Conditions, the Customer shall hold such ATM slips for each ATM or purchase transaction carried out by the Customer with the use of the Credit Card will be communicated to the bank’s operating system and will appear on the Credit Card Statement. The Customer agrees that the transaction printouts issued by ATMs and/or Merchants and/or the details of such transactions appearing on the Credit Card Statement shall serve as the record of the Customer’s transactions carried out using the Credit Card.

3.9. The Customer understands that the Credit Card is the Customer’s tool to access the Account and services associated therewith, manage such Account and services and administer the funds held in the Account and the funds that may be made available to the Customer within the Account. The Customer must exercise care in handling such credit card in order to protect it, to mitigate the risk of its theft, loss or Credit Card-related fraud or erroneous transactions.

The Customer must not let other people use the Credit Card and must never take advice from strangers while using it. The Customer must keep his/her PIN and TPIN secret and confidential since these are important means of protection for the Customer and the Account. In the event of unauthorized use of the Credit Card, PIN or TPIN, there is a risk that the available limit will be reduced/completely used up. The Customer may change his/her PIN at any time at ATMs or through Citibank Online or Citibank’s TPIN – through Citibank Telephonewhile the Card has been lost or stolen or if the Customer suspects that the Credit Card has been lost or stolen, or if there is a risk of unauthorized use of the Credit Card (as well as in the events when the Credit Card has been damaged or the Customer’s name or surname has been changed), the Customer shall notify Citibank thereof immediately by calling the Citibank number indicated on the back of the Credit Card or contacting a Citibank branch.

3.10. If the Credit Card has been lost or stolen or if the Customer suspects that the Credit Card has been lost or stolen, or if there is a risk of unauthorized use of the Credit Card (as well as in the events when the Credit Card has been damaged or the Customer’s name or surname has been changed), the Customer shall notify Citibank thereof immediately by calling the Citibank number indicated on the back of the Credit Card or contacting a Citibank branch.

3.12. Once the Credit Card has been reported lost or stolen, Citibank will block the Card and replace the Card to the Customer within 3 working days.

3.13. The Customer understands that if a wrong PIN is entered at an ATM or a Merchant’s point-of-sale terminal three consecutive times, the ATM/Merchant may block and retain the Credit Card. If the Credit Card is blocked and/or retained by an ATM or a Merchant, the Customer must request that the Card be unblocked and/or released through Citibank Telephone or re-issued by Citibank. If the Card is blocked by the Merchant, the Customer may block the Customer’s Credit Card in the event the Customer is in breach of the Credit Card’s terms of use, and in the event Citibank reasonably believes that there is a risk of unauthorized use of the Customer’s Credit Card.

3.18. If the Customer is required by the Customer under the Agreement, the Customer shall comply with the terms and conditions of the Agreement. If the Customer fails to comply with the terms and conditions of the Agreement, Citibank may terminate the Agreement and the Customer’s rights to claim performance/demand payment arise for Citibank. If Citibank’s rights of claim (i.e. the obligation that arises first is discharged first).

3.19. If the Customer is required by the Customer under the Agreement, the Customer shall comply with the terms and conditions of the Agreement. The participating Merchants, the selected goods and services offered by them, the applicable interest rate, and the number of monthly installments to be paid for each good or service (the “EPP Term”), will be determined by Citibank from time to time and communicated by Citibank and/or the relevant Merchant to the Customer. The terms of EPP Transactions will appear on the Credit Card Statement (the “Offer”). The acceptance of the Offer is conditional on the Customer duly making one minimum payment on the Credit Card within the first three (3) reporting periods from the date of the relevant Offer. By accepting the Offer, the Customer agrees to the terms and conditions of the EPP and the Terms of the Credit Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, such change will not result in an increase of the total cost of credit for the Customer. In the event of the Customer's request to apply the EPP to all EPP-eligible transactions meeting the criteria agreed between the Customer and Citibank, Citibank may, in its discretion, satisfy such request.

Eligibility
7.1. Citibank may allow the Customer to have the benefit of EPP provided that the Credit Card is used in accordance with Citibank rules. The EPP is available for both the primary and supplementary Credit Cards.
