

Common Reporting Standard (CRS) Due Diligence for Citizenship / Residency by Investment

Citizenship by Investment (CBI) and Residence by Investment (RBI) programs are being offered by a substantial number of jurisdictions and allow foreign individuals to obtain citizenship or temporary or permanent residence rights based on a local investment for a flat fee.

Under Section VII of the CRS, financial institutions are required to perform additional due diligence for any individual or controlling person(s) opening an account in a participating CRS jurisdiction where the tax residence on the CRS self-certification form is a CBI or RBI jurisdiction (per the Federal Tax Service list) ¹.

For new to bank accounts, please review the questions below as provided by the OECD. Please respond to each question accordingly.

Full name of individual account holder or controlling person (as provided on CRS Self-Certification):
